

detailing outputs and components (right). Stripline used for this experiment frequency restrictions. These geometry corrections and top and bottom stripline input to the processor. subtracted using a filtered and down-mixed 4MHz local oscillator phase-locked to the beam.

with raw stripline signal inset. Time resolution of 154ns therefore allowing b