

13.10.2020

ILD STATUS AND NEWS

Agenda

- News Ties Behnke
- News from Japan Keisuke Fujii
- Report from the snowmass community meeting
Graham Wilson
- Status and plans of TPC work in ILD Jochen Kaminski
- Jet Energy Scale Calibration using $e+e \rightarrow qq \text{ gamma}$
Takahiro Michizon

ILD news

- IHEP (Beijing) becomes newest member of ILD
 - Manqui Ruan, contact person
- Reelection of Institute Assembly chair: process has started, currently asking for candidate nominations

IDT

- International Development Team is ramping up activities
- Discussions are starting on the role of detectors and physics
 - R&D effort
 - Concepts and their roles
 - Grow the community
- One question asked: what resources are needed to move the concepts to a real TDR stage (and on which time scale)

Europe and the ILC

- Steinar Stapnes, regional coordinator
 - Meeting of European Linear Collider community to discuss the next steps
 - Time line for short term and pre-lab
 - Discuss “european ambition” in the ILC project
 - Understand and explore funding opportunities in Europe
 - Which role can/ does CERN play in this

Upcoming events

- The Americas LCWS is announced for 19-22 October 2020 (<https://conf.slac.stanford.edu/awlc2020/>). Its focus will be on pre-lab activities and also on the US planning, given the Snowmass process in progress.
- Next ILD phone meeting
November 3, 2020, 14:00 h Paris time