TOURS

HISTORICAL QUARTER TOUR

This visit on foot focuses on Valencia's attractive old quarter and we see the most representative squares of the city such as Plaza of the Virgen and Plaza of the Reina. We visit the interior of the cathedral where we can marvel at paintings by Goya, the Holy Grail and superb Renaissance frescoes.

The Modernist-style Central Market (one of the largest and most beautiful food markets in Europe-only mornings) and the gothic guild hall known as Lonja de los Mercaderes declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO.

To round off this tour, we recommend to taste the local Valencian drink, made with tiger nuts, "Horchata".

With the arrival of the Muslims, the irrigation system was perfected, which allowed an important agricultural development. One of the most unique crops in this area of l'Horta Nord (northern part of the Valencian orchard) is the horchata.

It is a tuber that has been known for more than 3,000 years. It was the Muslims who brought this product to Valencia and it is known that in the 13th century a drink called "llet de tufes" (milk of tiger nuts) was already consumed.

On this route we will visit the fields of cultivation, the dryer where a small miracle takes place, and there will be a demonstration where we will learn how to make handmade horchata to later try it if we want at home and we will finish it With a tasting of horchata and fartons (long sweet pastry).
